

Lorena Lyman. He was baptized in Redford, Michigan, by Elder D. B. Hurlbert, in October, 1842. He was ordained a Seventy in April, 1844, at Nauvoo, under the hands of Pres. Joseph Young, sen., and filled a mission to Michigan the same year. After his arrival in Great Salt Lake Valley with the pioneer company in July, 1847, he assisted to plow the land and plant crops until he returned to Winter Quarters with Pres. Young in the fall of the same year. He came back to the "Valley" in 1848, and married Elizabeth Clemons in Salt Lake City in 1851. In 1856 he became a resident of Springville, Utah, where he assisted in the construction of canyon roads and irrigating canals and from which place in 1861 he went to the Missouri River with Capt. John R. Murdock to bring poor saints to the "Valley." Bro. Kendall died at Springville March 10, 1905, survived by a large family.

KLEINMAN, Konrad, one of the original pioneers of Utah, was born April 19, 1815, in Germany, a son of Konrad Kleinman and Odelia Wissing. He emigrated to America when quite young and becoming a convert to the gospel was baptized Aug. 26, 1844, by Dominicus Carter in Indiana. Being chosen a member of Pres. Brigham Young's pioneer band, he (from the time of his arrival in Great Salt Lake Valley) took an active part in the up-building of Utah. In 1855-56 he filled a mission to New York, and in 1861 was called to southern Utah on a colonization mission. His first wife had no children, but later he married Anna Benz and Mary Ann Garner and became the father of thirteen children. Bro. Kleinman was ordained a Patriarch in September, 1891, and died Nov. 12, 1907, at St. George, Utah. (See Bio. Ency., Vol. 2, p. 661.)

KIMBALL, Ellen Sanders, one of the three pioneer women, who, under the direction of Pres. Brigham Young, arrived in Great Salt Lake Valley in July, 1847, was born in 1824 in the parish of Ten, in Thelemarken, Norway, a daughter of Ysten Sondrasen. The family emigrated to America in 1837, when Ellen was about thirteen years old, and located in Indiana. Later they moved to La Salle County, Illinois, where Ellen joined the Church in 1842. She became the wife of Heber C. Kimball in the Nauvoo Temple Jan. 7, 1846, shared in the toils and vicissitudes of the saints in their exodus from Nauvoo and the perils of the journey across the plains. Sister Ellen S. Kimball and Hans Christian Hansen were the only Scandinavians in the original pioneer company. Sister Ellen became the mother of five children, three of whom died in infancy. She died Nov. 22, 1871, in Salt Lake City. (Bio. Ency., Vol. 2, p. 772.)

KIMBALL, Heber C., one of the original pioneers of Utah, was born June 14, 1801, at Sheldon, Franklin Co., Vermont, a son of Solomon Farnham Kimball and Anna Spaulding. He was baptized in April, 1832, by Alpheus Gifford and ordained an Elder in 1832, by Joseph Young. He was ordained an Apostle Feb. 14, 1835, under the hands of Oliver Cowdery, David Whitmer and Martin Harris. After helping to establish the headquarters of the Church in Great Salt Lake Valley, he returned with Pres. Brigham Young to Winter Quarters, and when the presidency of the Church was reorganized on Dec. 24, 1847, Bro. Kimball was selected and set apart as first counselor to Pres. Brigham Young, which position he held until his death which occurred in Salt Lake City June 22, 1868. (See Bio. Ency., Vol. 1, p. 34.)

KING, William A., one of the original pioneers of Utah, was a member of the 25th Quorum of Seventy organized in Nauvoo, Ill. He was chosen as one of Pres. Brigham Young's com-
